Dear Noi,

I am writing to you to ask that you rescue the unlucky whale that is abandoned on the beach.

Firstly, it is unfair to see a poor, lonely creature struggle for its life. Unfortunately, whales can't survive on land because they can overheat and die. That would make everyone feel heartbroken!

Secondly, the whale looks very unhappy and it needs to be returned to its family. It's so unlucky that is has washed up on the shore!

Finally, if you save the whale, the whale will be your friend forever because it will be very grateful that you saved its life! Does having a whale as a friend sound good to you?

If you can rescue the whale we would be unbelievably happy! You would have saved one of the largest mammals in the world and you will no longer be lonely. If you need help, go and find your dad to see if he can help rescue the whale.

Please help this innocent creature!

Kind Regards,
The Hedgehogs Class
