

Model Text – Zog
Narrative – Wishing Tale

Once upon a time there was a scaly dragon called Zog. He wanted a shiny, golden star.

One day, Zog went to dragon school so he could get a star. Madame Dragon taught Zog how to fly, how to roar and how to breathe fire.

Unfortunately, he crashed into a tree, he hurt his throat, and he burned his wing. Zog felt so disappointed.

Just then, a Princess came and helped Zog. She gave him a plaster, a peppermint and a bandage. He felt so much better!

Finally, Zog won an important race and won the golden star. He was the proudest dragon ever and flew off with the princess into the blue, blue sky.
