Model Text – Instructions
How to Mummify a Pharaoh.

Are you kept awake at night worrying how to bury your Egyptian king? If so, don't worry. Read these instructions and soon you too will have wrapped up your old king ready for the afterlife.

What you need:

- Water from the River Nile
- A sharp knife
- Salt
- Linen
- Sarcophagus

What to do:

First, wash the body with water from the River Nile.

Next, remove the brain and vital organs using a sharp knife and a hook.

Then, cover the body in salt so the body is dry.

After that, wrap the body in linen.

Finally, place the mummified body into its sarcophagus

Top tip;

Do not forgot the leave the heart in the body for the Gods to weigh the pharaoh's heart!
